Please act to preserve net neutrality. It is important that we keep the internet free and open. It should be labeled a utility and provided free to all citizens. But most importantly, let's preserve net neutrality first.